THE SHOPS with Sally

● John has been cross as a bear all week. It really unnerves us because we don't know how to treat temperamental males.

● We were sitting at Sunday breakfast, when some grapefruit juice hit John in the eye.

● "My dear," he said, laying down his spoon, "I wish you wouldn't buy grapefruit."

● "These are delicious," we answered. "We bought them at Westlake Market. They also have some nice oranges, 3 dozen for 25c this week, and bananas, 15c a dozen. Just because you don't know how to handle a spoon—"

● "Oh, so now I don't know how to handle a spoon!" he howled, upsetting his chair. "I suppose Lucien Smith is an expert!" and he banged out of the door so hard that we m e n t a l l y bought new hinges for it at the grand opening of the Rossi Hardware, 5750 Mission street. (Their complete line of modern hardware is going to be a sensation.)

● Lucien Smith is a neighbor of ours whom John doesn't like because Smith is not the cave-man type. (Rumor has it that Smith once ducked into Robertson's Egg store to avoid a fight. He must have discovered how nice and fresh Robertson's eggs were, however, because he's been buying there ever since.)

● But whatever you may say about John, you can't say he's a coward in any sense of the word. We asked him that same evening while we were getting ready for a party, if he liked our Hallowe'en costume; he glowered and replied that we looked like—

● We blinked back several furious tears and wondered if it would help our problem any to attend the Daly City theatre next Thursday, where "The Spellbinder" will play. (We don't know, though—companion feature on the bill is "Each Dawn I Die!")

● Meanwhile, John was groping under the dresser for his collar button. We smugly reflected how clean the floor was, since we had bought a marvelous new Uni-

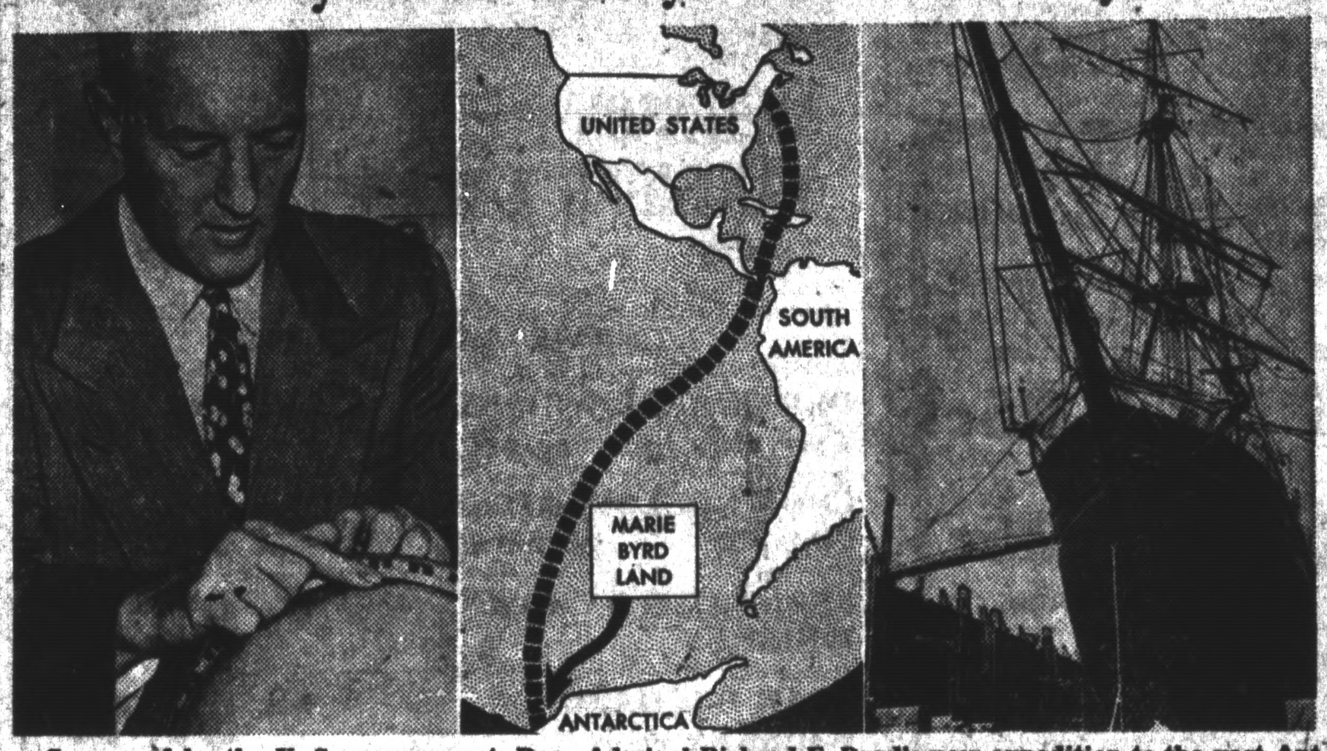
Admiral Byrd Seeks Key to Antarctic Mysteries



Sponsored by the U. S. government, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd's new expedition to the vast Antarctic wastelands will get under way about November 1. Admiral Byrd is shown tracing his course on the globe preparatory to leaving on the expedition which may develop into a permanent colony for commercial exploitation of the Antarctic. Right: the Bear of Oakland, veteran polar ship which is carrying the expedition.

Foxes Irk Sheep Raisers

Foxes have been killing so many lambs near Ballinrobe, Ireland, that the farmers have notified county officials they will give up sheep raising unless something is done to prevent the slaughter.

Gus Schenk Godfather For Three-Months Baby

Gus Schenk, 128 Santa Cruz avenue, became Godfather, Sunday, to Fred Ziegler at a baptismal service in Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, San Francisco. Mrs. Herman Schwartz became Godmother of the three-months-old baby, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ziegler, 520 Divisidero street.

Also baptized was the seven-months-old daughter, Helen, of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Wolf, 1645 Waller street. Mr. Herman Schwartz, and Mrs. D. Nimrandt are Godparents to the baby girl.

Reverend M. H. Liebe officiated at the baptismal services. A reception was held in the afternoon at Veneto restaurant.

School for Teachers

The first school for the preparation of teachers was opened at Lexington, Vt., in 1823 by Rev. Samuel Reed Hall, who had been a teacher as well as preacher, and who accepted the pastorate of the Congregational church at Lexington on condition that he might conduct a seminary for teachers. Massachusetts was the first state to establish normal schools, the first being opened at Lexington in 1839.

Mickey Rooney At D. C. Theatre

The lucky seventh of the Hardy Family series, "Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever," now playing at the Daly City theatre, is proof that audiences like these pictures and that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is more than keeping up the splendid pace set by the preceding productions.

Told entertainingly, the story is of how Judge Hardy almost faces ruin through being mulcted by crooked promoters and how young Andy falls romantically in love with his dramatics class teacher. The Judge finally manages to regain his money and Andy returns to his old sweetheart, Polly Benedict. The high spot of the evening for laughs is the high school play in which Andy plays the leading role.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Bulldog Drummond's Bride," starring John Howard and Heather Angel.

versal cleaner which does everything but bathe the baby. (Sold by both Colma Hardware and Shannon Hardware—see page 6.)

● Coming up for air, John demanded his good shirt. We looked at him aghast. He was wearing a sweat shirt—John looks beautiful in a sweat shirt—but his only good shirt was receiving expert attention at the hands of Beeson Cleaners.

● Here we draw the curtain for a short interval. When we raise it again, John and Sally are on their way to the party—John in one of Sammy's shirts, too short in the sleeves. They are discussing the weather in a very frigid tone of voice. To fill in an awkward silence they tell each other about the sensational three-month anniversary food sale at Castle Garden Grocery, where the specials on salad oil, imported sardines, canned vegetables can't be surpassed. Even candy bars and gum are selling 3 for 10c, they tell each other in icy tones.

● But the party was wonderful, and thawed out even our hardened hearts. A ghost in the basement shrieked so convincingly that he made our new fingerwave stand on end. (It was a beautiful fingerwave, too—one of the pre-holiday specials at the Daly City Beauty Shop—see their ad on page 3.)

● The refreshments were even more wonderful. Little garlic sausages and frankfurters from Milo's—15c a pound. Glasses of mellow, sparkling apple cider from Milo's. Almonds, potato chips, gum drops, walnuts, fragrant coffee. In fact the refreshments were so wonderful, that we were forced to remind John, after his third piece of pie, about morning-after headaches. At which he proclaimed vehemently that we were trying to live his life for him, and banged another door.

● We were so angry ourselves that we felt like going down to Lucca Ravioli's and eating oyster shells. They cost only 59c for a 100 pound sack—still we understand they're designed mostly for chickens. (Lucca has all sorts of feed for chickens and rabbits, at a very nominal price. He also has lovely feed for people who aren't chickens or rabbits—new chestnuts, 3 pounds for 29c; an outstanding special this week on canned apricots and pineapple juice; fresh fish on Fridays; juice oranges, 2 dozen, 15c.)

● John was grimly dancing with someone else, and we were resolving never to speak to him again, when some one passed the candy. Never in our life have we tasted such delicious candy—fresh, creamy, luscious, rich. Of course it was from the Daly City Nut Shop where prices are low, where candy is made fresh every day; where they carry a complete assortment of delightful Hallowe'en novelties.

● Still that didn't explain all of it, so while we were finishing off with hot buttered nuts and popcorn, we managed to get Grant Williams into a corner and discovered at least one of his secrets. For that extra goodness, he said, they use nothing but rich, fresh, cream and butter from the Mission Creamery.

● As a finishing touch to the feast, someone passed some cheddar cheese from Farmers Meat Company. If you haven't tried it yet, you're really missing something. It's on special this week, 21c a pound.

● Then someone turned on a little Phoenix radio from Byrne's. The reception was most unusual. The tone, too, was lovely—even from such places as Berlin, Germany. All in all, it was a wonderful party, even if we were too tired to say so properly by the time we left. Don't forget Byrne is giving away a modern Bendix home laundry at the Daly City theatre tonight.

● When we reached the car, something was wrong with the engine, and John glowered silently over all the little gadgets. "Sticky valves," we ventured. "If you had used Polly gas from Carr's Service station, this would never have happened. And Polly gas is so inexpensive, too—"

● John said something inaudible. He looked so fierce we couldn't resist teasing.

● "Maybe some rubbing alcohol would help it," we added. "Edwards sells a whole pint for 19c. Or how about a nice hot-water bottle? Edwards has them for 49c. Or even vanishing cream, 10c a tube. We might make up a prescription, because Edwards Drug Store is the place to—"

● John suddenly turned and charged—we are afraid we shall have to draw the curtain again. Let's talk about something nice. Did you know that the Hilltop Lodge features excellent food,

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi's Past Accomplishments Win Support of Thousands in Re-Election Campaign

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi's record of accomplishment in San Francisco has won him the enthusiastic support of thousands of men and women throughout the city for his campaign for re-election on November 7.

Of vital interest to every home owner and every home renter is the fact that Mayor Rossi has kept a continual low tax rate in San Francisco throughout his nine years as Mayor. With a 10 cent reduction in the 1939-40 rate, the Mayor has cut municipal expenditures to the bone without curtailing service.

Constantly increasing municipal services, Mayor Rossi has carried out a program of construction within his budget in San Francisco.

During the Mayor's administration, $5,860,000.00 was spent for school construction in the Mission District alone with corresponding amounts throughout the city in all districts.

Rossi has made civic recreation a feature of his administration, and the Recreation department has constantly provided more and better places for children and adults alike to play under competent supervision.

The street and public road construction and repair policy of Mayor Rossi has kept our streets in an enviable condition while sewer facilities have been increased.

Great credit is given to Mayor Rossi by citizens for his successful efforts to maintain a five cent car fare in San Francisco—a successful fight.

good music for dancing, lots of fun?

● We've been thinking it all over since then. We would like to suggest to John that perhaps we've both been taking life too seriously. But we don't dare. Because it was only the next day that the botom really fell out of the market.

● We had been proceeding on the theory that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Down at the Geneva Bakery we found John's favorite cake—caramel with nuts . . . really too nice to ruin with arsenic, we meditated.

● At the Vista Grande Meat Market, too, we found a thick piece of porterhouse steak, ideal for grumpy husbands.

● But it was at the Daly City Cut Rate Market that the catastrophe happened. We had just bought some soda crackers, 10c a pound; had admired the ceiling-high display of Nucoa, 19c a pound and were just buying some lovely fresh, crisp vegetables, when suddenly we saw John.

● What happened next was not a carefully-planned revenge on our part. Still, it was very nice. John took a sudden step backwards, bumped into the ceiling-high display of Nucoa and—

● Perhaps we'd better draw the curtain again.

Long-Live Turtles

The animal which attains the greatest age is probably the giant turtle of the Galapagos islands. There are records of some which have lived in zoological gardens for more than a century, and some individuals have lived to the age of 200.

Harvest Moon Doughnuts.
(Makes 24 doughnuts)

¼ cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
4 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Fat for deep fat frying

Cream butter and sugar. Beat in eggs. Sift together dry ingredients and add alternately with milk. Add vanilla. Roll dough ⅛-inch thick and cut with doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat at 385 degrees until doughnuts are golden brown on both sides. Drain on absorbent paper. Sugar lightly, if desired.

Television Lines

Because of the extremely wide frequency range required, existing telephone lines will not accommodate television programs. It is possible, however, to transmit them by means of a coaxial cable. The other solution of network television would be by means of a series of microwave radio relay stations.

Hot Water Cheese Pastry
(Makes 1 2-crust pie)

⅔ cup shortening
6 tablespoons boiling water
2 cups general purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup American cheese (grated)

Place shortening in warm bowl, pour boiling water over it, and cream thoroughly with a fork. Place flour, salt and baking powder in flour sieve and sift gradually into the creamed mixture. Add cheese. Mix thoroughly. Make up into doughball, then chill in refrigerator. When ready to bake remove from refrigerator, divide dough and roll out. Line pastry tin with one portion of the pastry and proceed with desired pie recipe.

Boston Tea Party

In Creechurch Lane, London, visitors may see the old firm of tea merchants whose tea was dumped into the harbor at the "Boston tea party" in 1773. The firm now sells many products from the United States.

Little Belgium

Belgium is smaller than our state of Maryland, and two Belgiums could be accommodated in Illinois; hence it is an ideal vacation land for those Americans who want to see much of a European country with very little travel.

Pigs-in-Taters.
(Serves 6)

6 large baking potatoes
6 tablespoons margarine
4 to 5 teaspoons milk
1½ teaspoons salt
Paprika
½ pound small sausages (cooked)

Wash and dry potatoes. Place on rack in hot oven (500 degrees), and bake for about 45 minutes, or until the potatoes are done. Cut a slice from one side of each and scoop out the inside. Mash thoroughly, add margarine, salt and paprika. Refill the potato shells. Make a depression in the center of each, and arrange in it 2 or 3 sausages. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 10 minutes, or until brown.

Lost Books

The Toledo, Ohio, public library has decided that there is no way of telling where lost books will be found. A messenger who spends his time hunting lost, stolen and overdue books found one in a used automobile—it had been turned in with the car.

Devil's Food Cake.
(Makes one two-layer cake)

1½ cups granulated sugar
2 ounces chocolate
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup butter
2 eggs
2 cups cake flour
½ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder

Place ½ cup sugar, chocolate and 1 cup milk in saucepan and cook, stirring constantly, until thick. Add vanilla extract and cool. Cream butter and add remaining sugar. Separate eggs, beat egg yolks and add slowly. Then add the cooled chocolate mixture. Mix and sift all dry ingredients and add alternately with the remaining milk. Bake in 2 well-greased layer-cake pans in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for approximately 25-30 minutes. Ice with boiled icing.

Apple Pie.
(Makes 1 pie)

Cheese pastry
6 cooking apples
Flour
¼ teaspoon salt
⅔ cup granulated sugar
Cinnamon
Nutmeg
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Line a pie tin with pie crust. Peel the apples and cut in slices. Sprinkle the bottom of the pastry with flour, salt and granulated sugar. Pile in the apples, filling very full. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon, nutmeg, sugar and lemon juice. Cover with the top crust, crimp the edges together and score

Semi-Tropical

It always surprises visitors to note the semi-tropical vegetation about the lakes of Killarney in Ireland. Here grow cedars of Lebanon, wild fuchsia, arbutus, the Mediterranean strawberry tree, found nowhere else in the British Isles, the scented orchid, and other plants common to Spain and Asia Minor.

Light From Glaciers

The electric light in your hotel room at Territet, Switzerland, comes from neighboring glaciers at an altitude of 10,000 feet, necessitating the building of a dam at 7,000 feet, and drops from the mountains through metal conduits nearly 6,000 feet in a single stage, the highest chute in the world.

Sauerkraut History

Sauerkraut was introduced and popularized in this country by German immigrants, and of course the name is German, but there is evidence to show that it may not have originated in Germany. There is no definite information as to when or where the idea occurred to shred cabbage and leave it to ferment in brine made from salt and its own juice. One writer traces it to Asia, showing how the Tartars first passed on a sauerkraut recipe to the Slavic peoples of eastern Europe, who in turn gave it to the ancient Germans. There is evidence also that this food has been made in Alsace and in Holland from very early times.

Heat Radiation

The earth loses heat rapidly by radiation. In the deserts, where the nights are almost always clear, radiation is very great and the result is rapid cooling at night.

Vegetable Soup.
(Serves 8)

2 pounds soup bone
2 tablespoons fat
2 quarts cold water
1 tablespoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons barley
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 onion
½ cup carrots (cut in cubes)
½ cup celery (cut in small pieces)
½ cup potatoes (cut in cubes)
½ cup peas

Remove a portion of meat from cracked soup bone and cut into pieces. Brown in hot fat. Place browned meat, soup bone, seasonings, and barley in kettle and add cold water. Cover and cook until boiling point is reached. Then simmer about 2½ hours or until meat is tender. Cool and skim off excess fat. Add vegetables and continue cooking until vegetables are tender.

Canadian Salvage

Canadian engineers are supervising efforts to salvage the old French war vessel Marquis de Malause, sunk in the Restigouche river in 1760. If raised, it will be converted into a museum.

Polar Regions

The uninhabited lands of the polar regions have an area greater than all Europe.

For California Sunshine — Latest addition to milady's wardrobe for the hot weather is this fan-purse, created by Rosemary Lane. Two dry-cells concealed in the false bottom of the purse run the small fan.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the Copper & Brass Industry Exhibit in the Metals Building at the New York World's Fair is a model of a Copper Atom enlarged 20 billion times. This model is described through a hidden voice interspersed with an interesting musical program. The Exhibit depicts the story of copper from its discovery by prehistoric man down through the centuries to the present time.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, October 29, on the subject "Everlasting Punishment."

The Golden Text will be: "Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?" (Ezekiel 18:31). Bible selections will include the following passages from Proverbs 15: 24, 29: "The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath. . . The Lord is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "Sin will receive its full penalty, both for what it is and for what it does. Justice marks the sinner, and teaches mortals not to remove the waymarks of God. To envy's own hell, justice consigns the lie, which to advance itself, breaks God's commandments." (p. 542).

Insulin Discovery

Insulin was discovered by two Canadian physicians, Drs. Frederick G. Banting and J. J. R. McLeod, but the greater share of the credit has been given to Dr. Banting. At the time the discovery was announced in 1922 Dr. Banting held the office of resident surgeon of the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto. The insulin treatment had been used under the supervision of its discoverers for a while before it was announced, but its general use dates from 1922.
